
Bernoulli Sailors – Abandoned Appliances

In the basement, with the bare light bulb blaring down on the cracks in the old concrete floor “Sidewalk” Tom Richter tells tall tales with his guitars, banjo, piano and voice. Accompanying Tom on this crazy ride are true-blue Sailors that come prepared for all weather conditions: Ace “Tip-Toe” Yates on 5-string bass and electric guitar, Greg “Zenman” Zaino on the zendrum, Dale “Other Room” Orr playing a mean muted trumpet in the open spaces, and Brian “Chunkabilly” Goetz shaking the shakers, recording, mixing, and producing the whole shebang for chunkabillymusic.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1) Hailing Columbia – 3:09 | Seven sailors in a starry sea |
| 2) There She Goes – 3:49 | First they crawl, toddle, walk, and then run for the door |
| 3) Best Years – 3:49 | Taking stock twenty years later |
| 4) Me & My Banjo – 3:20 | I’m taking my banjo with me when I go |
| 5) St. Brendan’s Chant – 2:59 | Row me boys and you’ll get a little rum |
| 6) Silver 25 – 5:42 | Life is a brilliant train ride |
| 7) Back Seat – 5:15 | Around the world in the back seat of that old Chevrolet |
| 8) Blues in the Basement – 5:23 | I swear babe that it weren’t my fault |
| 9) When My Baby Waters All Her Plants – 3:44 | Where’s my foul weather gear? |
| 10) Valentine’s Day – 4:01 | The crazed confessions of a bad husband |

Lyrics and other information at chunkabillymusic.com

Recorded at The Landfill Kingston, NH

Special thanks to Brian Goetz, all Sailors, and the Cookie Man

© Tom Richter 2006

Chunkabillymusic.com

Bernoulli Sailors Abandoned Appliances

